

CYBERCHASE
Legal Line Usage Guidelines

Any and all CYBERCHASE images and their uses must be approved by Thirteen/WNET Educational Broadcasting Corporation. This approval includes but is not limited to character selection, pose/action, scaling, cropping, color reproduction, silhouetting, character proportions etc. Character likenesses and names must be accompanied by all necessary copyright information.

Credit / Legal Line: Print and Promotional Materials

The following line must be included on all print materials or wherever CYBERCHASE images are used for promotional purposes including but not limited to: ads, banners, postcards, flyers etc.

“CYBERCHASE is produced by Thirteen/WNET New York in association with Title Entertainment Inc. All copyrights in the CYBERCHASE characters are owned by Educational Broadcasting Corporation. CYBERCHASE is a trademark of the Educational Broadcasting Corporation. The PBS KIDS GO! logo is a registered mark of PBS and is used with permission.”