Mary Goodhearth

Report #1

General George Washington and his men are facing many hardships at Valley Forge. We understand there's a witness at Valley Forge documenting the brutal conditions. Let's get some answers from the FREEDOM series.

Report #2

Our field producer tells me we can confirm this on the FREEDOM Web site. We warn our viewers that descriptions may be graphic. This is Mary Goodhearth, with the Continental Army at Valley Forge. Back to the studio.

Jedediah Smith

Report #1

Jedediah Smith here in Philadelphia, the city of brotherly love. People are arguing everywhere here at the home of the Constitutional Convention. Like any good, juicy convention, people are taking sides. Sources tell me that political parties are about to emerge.

Report #2

I understand that President George Washington has appointed some advisors. Let's listen to find out:

What did Washington call this group of advisors?

Who were the advisors?

What position did each advisor hold?

What were the two political parties that emerged?

Who represented each of the parties?
