

Memory and History

1. Define the following terms:

memory –

history –

2. Discuss the relationship between the two terms.

3. Write down at least three statements about the relationship between the two terms.
For example: "History is recorded so that people will retain a memory of events that take place." Be prepared to back up your statements with examples.