

An Ancient Revolution: Culminating Activity

Create your own religious text or myth based on one of the civilizations, texts, and/or situations you have learned about. Use the following questions to guide your work:

1. What are the sources for your ancient text?
2. How does the text reflect its society's religious beliefs, political situation, culture, or another aspect of the society?
3. Why would this society have generated such a text? What was its purpose?