JOSHUA C. NATHAN BECOMES GENERAL COUNSEL OF EDUCATIONAL BROADCASTING CORPORATION

January 12—New York, NY—Joshua C. Nathan has assumed the position of vice president, general counsel and secretary of Educational Broadcasting Corporation (EBC), licensee of public television stations Thirteen/WNET and WLIW21. Nathan replaces Eleanor S. Applewhaite, who announced her retirement in December.

Nathan joined EBC in 1997 as associate general counsel and in 2002 was promoted to deputy general counsel.

Nathan is a member of the Association of the Bar of the City of New York where he serves on the Committee on Copyright and Literary Property and has served on the association's Committee on Art Law.

In 2000 Nathan received two New York Emmy Awards for his work on Thirteen's local television documentary NYTV: By The People Who Made It.

Prior to joining Thirteen, Josh Nathan was associated with Rosenman & Colin LLP (now KMZ Rosenman) where he represented clients primarily in business litigation and handled arts related matters including pro-bono cases for Volunteer Lawyers for the Arts.

Nathan earned his AB from Vassar College (cum laude in art history) and his JD from Cornell Law School (1991).

He lives with his wife and son in Rye, NY where he also serves as a member of the Board of Education for the Rye City School District.
