Title Entertainment Inc.

Title Entertainment Inc. was founded in 2004 by industry veterans Dulcie Clark and Frank Taylor. The company is active in animation, documentaries and drama. Recent productions include the one-hour Celtic music documentary The Exiles Return shot in Ireland for Canada’s Global Television, the popular CBC animated children’s series, The Secret World of Og, and the 26-half-hour Canadian-Australian co-venture Sumo Mouse for Australia’s Ten Network and BBC Kids Canada. Title’s sister company, PIP Animation Services Inc., is now in its 10th year. With a staff of 85, its many credits include Carl Squared (for Portfolio Entertainment), Caillou (for Cookie Jar Entertainment), and John Kricfalusi’s Ren & Stimpy.

PBS KIDS and PBS KIDS GO!

PBS KIDS, for preschoolers, and PBS KIDS GO!, for early elementary school kids, are committed to providing the highest quality non-commercial content and learning environment for children across the country. Providing age-appropriate, diverse programming for kids, PBS KIDS and PBS KIDS GO! programs consistently earn more prestigious awards than any other broadcast or cable network. Only PBS KIDS and PBS KIDS GO! have earned the unanimous endorsement of parents, children, industry leaders and teachers. With additional PBS resources to complement its programming, including PBS KIDS online (pbskids.org), PBS KIDS GO! online (pbskidsgo.org), PBS Parents (pbsparents.org), PBS Teachers (pbs.org/teachers), PBS Ready To Learn services and literacy events across the country, PBS is providing the tools necessary for positive child development. PBS is a nonprofit media enterprise owned and operated by the nation's 355 public television stations, serving nearly 73 million people each week and reaching 99% of American homes.
