JULY

6 FRIDAY

New York: Images from the Edge Five homeless New York City artists use their creativity to sort through the difficulties in their lives. (Joost Bosland, 53 min.)

Poetry In Motion Pictures Cinematic interpretations by local film students of poems featured in the Poetry in Motion program. (Veena Sud, Jodi Kaplan, 5 min.)

13 FRIDAY

Nelly's Bodega A 12-year-old girl realizes that her adult friend, Nelly, is a victim of domestic violence. (Omonike Akinyemi, 51 min.)

The Manhatitlan Chronicles A light-hearted, animated view of New York's cityscape transposed with traditional Mexican images. (Felipe Galindo, 7 min.)

20 FRIDAY

Animal Attraction Frustrated by her cat's obnoxious behavior, the filmmaker seeks guidance from an "animal communicator." (Kathy High, 59 min.)

27 FRIDAY

3rd Avenue El A nostalgic 1957 film about the elevated railway, a noisy symbol of New York's gentle past. (Carson Davidson, 11 min.)

The Godfather Comes to 6th Street The day Francis Ford Coppola and his crew transformed a New York street into a setting for The Godfather, Part II. (Mark Kitchell, 25 min.)

Pleasures of Urban Decay Cartoonist Ben Katchor and his hero, "Julius Knipl, Real Estate Photographer," turn New York's gritty, shadowy corners into urban poetry. (Samuel Ball, Liam Romalis, 19 min.)
